

“13 Value Wines To Explore California”

Wine Spectator

“Don’t overlook wines with the broad ‘California’ designation... These can deliver especially great value.”

2019 Vintage - 88 Points
Wine Spectator

“Well-knit dried cherry and berry flavors show a cedary, savory richness, with dried rose petal and allspice notes on the supple finish.”

- Wine Spectator, February 2021

Our family started Block Nine in response to changes in the Pinot Noir market. Demand for moderately priced Pinot Noir has spiked over the last few years. Large, mass marketed brands brought most of the Pinot to the market leaving consumers with few choices of smaller production Pinot Noir from California.
